As Parent/Legal Guardian of the above mentioned participant, I grant my permission for my child to attend Our Lady of Perpetual Help's 2018 Life Teen Retreat. I accept full responsibility and liability for my student. I will not hold the Columbus Diocese, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Life Teen, or Damascus Catholic Mission Campus liable to any injury.

I further acknowledge that my student will return to me a disciple. I promise to fulfill my parental duty as primary catechist in the faith by supporting my child and embracing a full sacramental life for myself and my child.

As the parent and participant, we accept that a certain behavioral standard will be upheld. This is a matter of respect, cooperation, and safety, not only for the participant but for all those attending this retreat.

As participant, I agree to have an open heart and open mind on this retreat. I will not do anything to deliberately disrupt others' retreat experience. I will dress modestly, use appropriate language, and follow all rules set by Damascus Mission Center, the youth minister, and Core team. If any of these rules are broken, a phone call will be made to the parent and the parent will need to come pick up their student. Please have a conversation together about what this means.
